This race was an innovation last year, suggested and most successfully carried out by Physical Director O. H. Nickerson of the Y. M. C. A. The interest was so keen and intense that Mr. Nickerson has planned to make this an annual event.

Last year the race was open to all amateur runners in eastern Connectitude and the entry list this year to only local amateurs and the result has been that the interest and enthusiasm of the race was an innovation last year, suggested and most successfully bagsage" on the Boston express due in Manchester at 5.37 yesterday afternoon. The vigilance of Conductor James McFarland and a yard employe in East Hartford resulted in his detection at Manchester just as the "all aboard" signal was given and the heavy train started on its way east. Conductor McFarland turned Brennan, who was too discouraged to resist, over to Policeman W. R. Campbell. As New Haven road officials did not that the interest and enthusiasm

New York, May 29 .- In the face of a double holiday and strong intima-tions that Germany's reply to Wash-ington's note in the matter of the Lusitania might be made public be-fore the resumption of business on Luesday, today's brief session on the stock exchange was altogether a su-perficial affair. The tone at the out-set was irregular, gradually verging towards heaviness on rumors that Germany had issued another marine warning. More careful perusal of this notice served to allay apprehension and in some quarters was regarded as a desire on Berlin's part to show greatfull recovery in the final dealings, the market closing with a firm tone. Shares of the low priced railways, Shares of the low priced railways, mainly Rock Island and Missouri Pacific, moved contrarily. held at Franklin Field, Philadelphia, Saturday afternoon. Cornell triumphed overwhelmingly in capturing the team honors, with a total of 45 1-2 points, but it had to yield a great measure of the glory and, pitted against the finest and fast-est fields that ever lined up for a start, he won both races with what seemed to be consummate ease.

Never before had mortal man done within the space of 90 short minutes what Meredith did Saturday, and it will be fully many a day before the will be fully many a day before the achievement is equalled.

But to get back to the team honors, Cornell's 45 1-2 points were almost double the score of the Harvard team, which finished second with 26. The Crimson, of which so much was expected, failed to live up to the promise indicated in the preliminaries Friday, and did not even run a close second to the superior Cornell team. second to the superior Cornell team.
